The following athletes have been selected to the Québec Espoir Montreal Regional Volleyball team, one of two centers being hosted in Montreal.

Concordia University - Department of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics will be hosting the team, and Melanie Sanford-Moore Head Coach of the Concordia Women's Volleyball Club has been selected to coach the Espoir Team.

The Espoir Team will train together from July 9 - 27 at Concordia University - Loyola Athletic Complex, and follow up with competition in Québec City July 28 - 29. The tournament in Québec City will host our regional Espoir teams and will determine selection to the provincial volleyball team which represents Québec in the Canada Summer Games.

All athletes selected to the Espoir Montreal Team represent various club and high school programs in the community and are among the best age-class athletes in the province.
